Reservation Terms

- The availability request is an application for reservation and there is no commitment from your side or the camping personnel.
- After the availability of camping pitches or accommodations is confirmed by the Camping reception, you will be given a bank account for the advance payment.
- Your reservation is valid only following a deposit of the amount that will be agreed with the person responsible for the reservations and you will be charged with all of the bank expenses.
- The advance payment should be proven by an email of the bank deposit note.
- Reservations may be made for at least three-days stay (minimum 3 overnights).
- Reservations for the specific positions can take place only after the reception confirmation. Also, reservations for specific mobile home/caravans or types of mobile home/ caravan for rent can be confirmed only by the camping reception.
- Your position or accommodation will be available at 14:00 unless it has been made vacant earlier.
- Pets are accepted, however under conditions. In any case that they may cause problems (annoying woofs, excrements or in case they get around freely), this will be a reason for the reservation to be cancelled. Pets are not allowed in our rental caravans and mobile homes.

Cancelation policy

- In case of a reservation cancellation, the advance payment is returned to you only if the cancellation has been performed 21 days before the scheduled arrival date.
- In case of cancellation in less than 21 days the guests are charged 50% of the advance payment. Cancellation in less than 10 days before the scheduled arrival occurs no prepayment refund.
- In case of a reservation cancellation during your stay, you are charged with 70% of the cost of the remaining stay after the unscheduled departure, added to the cost of the overnights from your scheduled arrival until the last overnight before the unscheduled departure.
